Attila Gőz

I am an experienced Mechanical Engineer who decided to became a Developer, and with this step, a life-long interest changed into a profession. Now, I can turn my imagination and creativity into code, which keeps me motivated. All-day, every day.

Skills

Solid development skillset:

HTML5	CSS	JavaScript	React	Git
Python	Django	DRF	Gitlab CI/CD	Docker

Light development skillset:

TypeScript	React Native	Firebase

People skills:

- Motivated: I am enjoying what I am doing, and it keeps me moving forward.
- Creative and problem-solver: I perfected these skills along with analytical thinking when I worked as a continuous improvement engineer in Denso. In that position, these skills are a must.
- Team-player: Learnt it in company-wide projects, both as member or leader.
- Flexible: Working in fast pacing, small companies taught me how to adapt and react fast.
- Can do it: because I am motivated, I always have the "I can do it" attitude. Stay positive!
